“ To: My Dearest Family,

*When I think of our loss I am saddened.
When I think of past times together, the corners of my mouth soften into a smile... I drift further into a remembrance of a Husband/father who loved his Queen and three Princesses and seem to always be near, helping out in whatever was going on at the time. He shared himself with everyone he met.*

His caring thoughtfulness and humor was extended to all whom he encountered. In his presence there seemed to always be laughter... he loved to make others see the humor in their dilemmas... and in doing that the ladies of the blue room were able to find their way.

So ...I share this condolence with you and the rest of the family and look forward to seeing you soon. (Regret that I am not able to be with you now)

I've selected the Prayer of St Francis of Assisi for all of us to pray-- because it reminds me of Robert.

Prayer of St Francis of Assisi

*Make me a channel of Your peace
Where there is hatred, let me bring Your love.
Where there is injury, Your pardon Lord.
and where there's doubt, true faith in You.*

*Make me a channel of Your Peace.
Where there's despair in life let me bring Hope.
Where there is darkness, only light.
And where there's sadness, ever Joy.*

*O' Master grant that I may never seek,
So much to be consoled, as to console.
To be loved, as to love with all my soul.*

*Make me a channel of Your Peace.
It is in pardoning, that we are pardoned.
In giving to all men, that we receive.
And in dying, that we're born to eternal Life.*

Love forever, forever Love

“ I was so sorry to hear about Bob's passing. No matter what the circumstance it's never easy. I still miss my dad every day. His sickness gave me the opportunity to know him better and to show him more love. When he passed away I was at peace and I hope you will all be at peace that you showed Bob lots of love. In the end we know that's all that really matters. Were we loved!

God bless all of you in the days ahead. I'm sure it will not be easy especially with the holidays upon us. Please be patient and kind to each other. We all grieve in our own way.

I wish you lived closer I would have loved to have sung for the funeral for Bob.
