“ I was completely stunned when I received news of your passing. Moments later it sunk in and another hole appeared in my heart. The deep sorrow and heart-wrenching pain that I felt was next to nothing compared to what your family and friends must have experienced at that time. I feared saying anything to the family at first, but now I have decided to overcome that fear. To your family, I am truly sorry for what what lost. To you, Robert I humbly and sincerely apologize. You were a good man and you would have made an excellent husband and father to Casey and her children. This is our final goodbye, Robert.

“ It saddens me today to learn of the death of a friend I only knew for a short time. I knew Robert and his brother Jason from there stint in Oceanside where they served there country. Earlier today I got a text from Jason after I had text Robert earlier in the week to catch up an see how everyone is doing, but to my chagrin Jason notified me that he had passed away. I would like to take this opportunity to thank him for his service to our country and cherish the great time we spent fishing and joking around on our free time. You will be missed Robert RIP. my friend!!!

“ Robert is a true friend and the greatest example of selflessness and sacrifice. There was never a moment in my life nor any of our brothers lives that went by without laughing or even having a rough day, that Robert would always have the personality to bring you back from whatever was getting to you, and making things much easier to carry on!

I like many others will have nothing but great memories of my friend, roommate, and brother! You are always remembered and never forgotten Marine!

Till we meet again brother, Semper Fidelis and CARRY ON!

You will be greatly missed!

“ I had the privilege of serving with Robert. He and I lived together on the same vehicle while in the field training and on deployment for about 18 months. I knew him well. I have fond memories of playing cards at night. I will never forget the positive attitude with which he carried out every day. I never once saw him without a smile; he made tough days easier with such a great personality and outlook. Rest in peace brother...gone, but never forgotten.

We've not seen each other in years and we've only recently reconnected through Facebook. I was so gutted when I learnt that you were all moving to America. I wanted my first trip out there to see you all but that can't happen because you're not there.

I'll always remember you!

“ Robert no words can describe how we all feel right now devastated shocked heart broken would be just a few.ive always looked at all your boys as my real brothers and that will never change .you were one of the most caring lovable people ive ever met.in my eyes you were always the baby of the family the one who loved cuddles and needed looked after but yet you grew up in to such a strapping young man.remember like yesterday you an Jason always bringing home some sort of injured animal to look after such a caring person you are. my heart breaks for your dad Leah and the boys and im devastated that I cant be there with them all and you.doest matter the distance nor time between us you mean the same to me as you did then the world.i remember there was something you used to say when you were younger that used to make us all giggle the boys will remember too but the answer just remember is that you were loved and always will be. forever in my heart Robert love you xxx

“ I'll always Remeber Robert for saying "top of the morning CPL." He is by far one of the best people I ever had the pleasure to know. He always went out of his way to help others before himself, and the birds. I won't ever forget always seeing him with new scratch marks from saving birds. Love you brother YAT YAS.
