“ I grew up with Robin and her family. Mainly her and her daughter. She always gave me a place to go if things weren't ok at home as a kid and she always made me laugh. I wish we could've spent more time together. Rest In Peace ❤️

“ I met Robin in jail of all places.she and I share a room with each other.she got settled in crying the whole time.i got to telling her it would all be ok.she calmed down finelly.we we're talking and soon I had her laughing.and from there on she was ok.i was later fixing to get out with know one ,our any were to go.she placed me in her home and gave me work.till she could be back there also.thank you so much Robin for trusting a total stranger with your family.for over 30 yes now her family has been my family,and yet the least,been my truest best friends.thank you Robin thank you.i will miss you forever and day.i loved you more then words could say.than you for all the laughs you've given me .to many to talk about.but will be remember.so sweetheart I love you so much and I hope now your resting in peace.save me a cloud beside you and family.we will met again someday darling I'm sure of this.love you always Kay Bryant from ky. Go rest high babygirl.
