“ Uncle Rodgers, Roostie or Pop, I call you all three.

It has been a long and trying year and I am going to miss you. You had so much to go through but you did the best you could. I could ask you how are you doing and I liked when you would say “very well”. I knew this week when I asked and you said “not good” that you had gone through enough. I am thankful of the memories I have of you and someday I hope to have some more of your tea cakes.
Love, LeeAnn
