“ Ron was a good friend for many years. I regret losing contact with him shortly after I moved away to Tennessee in 1993 but I will always have good memories of Ron. He was a good boss, friend, and mentor. I am very sorry to hear of his illness and of his passing so suddenly and want to express my sincere grief to the family. He will be missed and the one thing that we'll always remember about him is his love for fine muscle cars and classic automobiles. May God bless and be with the family and comfort them during this time of mourning.
