

Ronald (Ron) Alan White

August 26, 1947 - April 25, 2021

Ronald (Ron) Alan White, age 73, of Chattahoochee Hills, Georgia, died peacefully on April 25, 2021 at Southwest Christian Care Hospice in Union City, GA. Ron was born in Atlanta to McCoy and Helen (Mitchell) White, and grew up in East Point. He attended Jere A. Wells and Harris Street elementary schools, and graduated from Georgia Military Academy (GMA) in 1965. He graduated from Georgia Tech with an engineering degree.

Ron's career was in police and fire communications, first working for the City of East Point, where he met his future wife, Julie Long. After taking early retirement from East Point in 1986, he began working for Fulton County as 911 Operations Manager, from which he retired in 2015.

He was a member of the East Point Avenue Methodist Church in East Point where he and Julie were married. They later transferred to Southwest Christian Church in East Point. Ron was a gifted musician, playing piano and organ and singing in his church choirs, the GMA Glee Club, the Georgia Tech Glee Club, and later with the Southern Crescent Chorale, of which he was proud to be a member for eleven years. He reluctantly retired from the Chorale when his health began to fail in 2017.

Ron was a loving and kind husband and brother, highly intelligent, especially in the field of electronics, and was very funny with a delightfully quick wit. He made many good friends along the way at church, work, and the Chorale. He is survived by his wife, Julie Long White of Chattahoochee Hills, his sister Anne White of Smyrna, his aunts Jane Mitchell Jones (of Virginia and North Carolina) and Jane Baskin Mitchell of College Park, and a host of Cousins. Parrott Funeral Home in Fairburn is in charge of the arrangements. Due to Covid-19 restrictions, there will be no visitation. A graveside service will be held Wednesday, April 28, 2021 at 1:00 p.m. at Forest Lawn Memorial Gardens in College Park, GA

In lieu of flowers, donations in Ron's memory can be made to the Southwest Christian Care Hospice, 7225 Lester Road, Union City, GA 30291.

“ I've just learned of Ron's passing. He was a magnificent Christian and is surely dancing now. I've never met anyone so generous, faithful, and downright funny/clever/wry. Rest in peach my old friend. Julie, if you see this, please know that I thought of you both often.

“ My Condolences to Julie and the rest of Ron's family.

I met Ron when I started working at East Point and we both ended up at Fulton County. For the three years I was assigned to the Fulton Co. 911 Center Ron was a great source of knowledge and wisdom.

Ron was a good man. He will be missed.

“ Don and I loved to see and hear Ron singing at a concert. He had such a beautiful voice. We will miss him but never forget this man. We learned of him from knowing his lovely wife and her biking when we were biking too

Julie, so sorry for this void in your life, hope you are comforted by the good years you had with Ron. He was a good husband, a very intelligent man, very Christian, I know he loved you very much, and also loved to participate in musical performance such as The Southern Crescent Chorale.

His earthly recent struggles have now past, and he is back to his singing and joyful life with Jesus 🎵🎶💕.

Hi Julie, so sorry for your loss. Ron was one of the very few members in my very small family, which unfortunately, just grew smaller. You have my sincere sympathy. Greta

I had a few good times, as he sang some gospel songs as I played the guitar. He had a beautiful voice, it was a joy for the both of us, I liked it because he knew alot of the older songs which also of us grew up on. Bless you julie.

I really enjoyed working with Ron while he was at Fulton County. He was a good man, knowledgeable, and funny. The world is a lesser place without him. May God give comfort and strength to Julie and all of Ron's family and friends.

Ron was probably the finest person ever, multi-faceted, on the communications end of public safety. Very knowledgeable in many aspects, including technical. Funny, too.
