“ God has a way of putting someone special in our lives. Someone that really makes a difference. Someone that pushes you to work harder to be the best you can be while providing the support and encouragement all the way.

Ronnie was that person for me when I needed it most. We could work hard, then sit down at the end of the day, share a few beverages, a few laughs and create memories never to be forgotten. We shall meet again one day. Tee one up for me. R.I.P. my Brother.

*Love,
Wilkie*

“ Paige and family I am so saddened to hear this news. Ronnie was a part of our Cushman family for 25+ years. We miss him every day since his retirement. What a legacy he created as he trained some of the best in our field and will always be remembered for his commitment to excellence. My heart goes out to you and your family.
