He was a graduate of ETSU, and attended South Greene High.

Ron leaves behind his devoted wife of 50 years, Lovy Russell Myers (m. Jan 1, 1972) and his four daughters, Candace Myers (m. Chris), Erin Ashley (m. David), Jennie Myers, and Kelley McShea (m. Tom) as well as his eight grandchildren - Cassandra, Noah, Vincent, Jacob, Evelyn, Mark, Tara and James.

He lived in Peachtree City Georgia for many years pursuing his favorite pastime, golf, and he was able to play until his last day. He followed the Braves every season and was so happy to see them win the championship in 2021 & 1995. He and his wife, as empty nesters, enjoyed going to music concerts regularly and spending time with their pets, especially his loyal dog Harley.

Ron was a loving father and husband, an attentive grandfather, who will be deeply missed by those he left behind. His memories and spirit will live on with them. A celebration of life will be planned in the coming weeks and shared with family and friends. “ Ron, I got the shocking news that you have left this earth. I'm so heartbroken for Lovy and your family. I know you are Dancing With the Angels! I will miss seeing you when we gather to hear music. Seeing you and Lovy was always a treat and we all shared the love of the Down Home and New Grass Revival. Dance on my friend!❤️

“ We are so saddened to learn of the passing of Ron. Our son was one happy guy when Ron found a van for him to cart around his band equipment when he was in high school many years ago. We enjoyed knowing you all when you lived in McIntosh Corner. Kelley and Paige were inseparable during that time and though all have scattered across the country, we still get news about Kelley from time to time. You and Ron raised sweet daughters who have turned out to be wonderful young women. Lovy, please know that you all are in our thoughts and prayers during this difficult time. -- Kathy and David Ingram

“ I had the privilege of knowing Ron. I babysat his children for some years when they were small and living in Tennessee. Ron and his wife bought me my first car and always made sure we were ok. Ron always had the sweetest spirit. He will truly be missed. Fly high with the angels Mr. Ronnie Myers 🙏🙏

“ Played golf with Ron for many years. He was a fun loving, easy going guy. A great person to be around. While I have been credited with an original strategy on the golf course known as "one and done", I actually got this strategy from Ron.
