“ We are so sorry for your loss. Sandra, I so enjoyed getting to meet you both and spend time together, whether getting frozen yogurt with the kids after school or at Ryan's birthday party, it's been a few years but we recall those times fondly and I know he will be greatly missed. He was so personable and easy to speak with, our heart goes out to you and the family. We pray the Lord's comfort will be felt in these difficult days/weeks and months to come. Jesus calls you blessed as you mourn, and will give you His peace that passes all understanding.

“ Having lived across the road from Sandra(my cousin) and Roy for many years was a blessing for me. Roy always had a great sense of humor and we had many laugh sessions. I adore Sandra and pray she will find the peace she needs to deal with her loss. He never failed to talk about his grandchildren. He so adored them. I will forever be sad when I look across the road and know they are no longer my “sweet neighbors”. Rest In Peace Roy.

“ I have many memories of 'Big Roy' and they all make me smile and laugh when I think of them. One in particular was when he painted his truck. With house paint. He was so proud and had just finished when I arrived at the Nix household. Big Roy was covered in paint and proclaimed, 'It looks good don't it Smitty?' To which I replied, 'It sure does!!' That man was one of a kind. He loved his family, and everybody loved him. He will be missed. The family knows the other stories and I will not proclaim them here, but y'all can use your imaginations.....one involves his work, one was about a football game (me and Mike) and we weren't supposed to win and another that was so funny I can't even say. He made me feel like one of his kids everytime I was there. I hope somewhere within the misery, y'all can find some peace. I ain't the words....nothing will make it better, it just sucks
