“ The grandchildren of Mamaw and Papaw Lowery grew up spending a lot of family time together - as much time as distance would allow. Uncle Buck and my mother were always very close, so Russ and I grew up sharing a lot of time together. He was always such fun and a great guy! He was a loyal, devoted son to his parents. He was a hard-working man. He loved his family so much! He was an inspiration to others in the evidence of his faith in God and giving God the glory for being with him through his trials. Russ will be missed for sure by many. He and Dorine touched so many lives by the example they shared of how to love and support one another through the valleys and enjoy and embrace each other in good times. Repeating what Russ used to tell me... "I love you MORE and S'MORES!" Very much love and prayers for Dorine and family! cousin Linda

“ Russ was a huge inspiration to all of us! His deep trust in the Lord was his strength to fight a good battle. Precious Dorine, your great love that bubbles from within has been the arms embracing every step of this journey 💖 May you and the family always cling to the wonderful life you all shared with Russ! Rejoicing in Russ’s reunion! Love you!

“ Russ and I shared a kindred spirit in the sign business. Russ was an old school perfectionist in the art of sign making. We shared many a story about our work and customers over the years. After Russ retired I was honored he respected me enough to make signs for his remaining customers. You will be missed on earth brother Russ. We know you are doing well now in heaven.
