“ It is with great sadness that Ron & I learned of Ruth Ann's passing from our friends at the Emory Seniors Investment Club.

Ruth Ann traveled on many of my 'Evening At Emory' International trips, and we'll always remember her bountiful, POSITIVE spirit! We journeyed through Eastern Europe and 'Checkpoint Charlie', all over Spain, and most recently on a German Rhine River Cruise and then on to King Ludwig's Castles and Munich. She'd been most of these places as a younger woman, and enjoyed reliving her adventures and making new discoveries. We'll always remember her challenge to the Travel Impossible and Unlikely...."Well, WHY NOT?!"

Ruth Ann was a special part of Emory Seniors Investment Club! She did her homework, knew what stocks she liked and disliked, and made suggestions that usually enhanced our portfolio.

I know all of her travel buddies and investment buddies who have passed before will be thrilled to have her join them in heaven.

“ Ms Ruth Ann was a good friend to so many. I loved spending time with her and listening to her stories of the past. She would always find something to laugh about. It was fun to break out in song and share a hymn together. She could remember the songs like yesterday. I am thankful for our friendship. She inspired me to live life to the fullest and stay involved and active as I age.

She will be greatly missed!

My condolences to the family.
