“ I played football with Tim in High School and always admired his character, I am very sorry for your loss! Please know that my family and my Church family (Rolling Hills Baptist Church) continue to lift your entire family up in prayer. We grieve with you for your terrible loss but rejoice at the same time that Ryland is in the company of our sweet Savior. We will pray for peace and comfort for you all. We have been forever touched by your witness and faith. Please know that God is using this tragedy for his Glory and Ryland will smile on!
