“ It was an honor to meet Mr. Mace and help take care of him in his final days here on Earth. I enjoyed meeting his wonderful family and will keep them in my prayers during this most difficult time.

“ God be blessed to have such a soldier on his side. I only met Mr. Mace once in my life and he left a great assurance on me that he was just fine and was doing just great at that time, only thing else i can say is that he sure was great company...

To Greg, I hope and wish you and your mom the best and a speedy mourning process, a death is something that is not so likley to be taken with wide open arms. Sometimes even full of lots of unanswered questions. Just know that he lived a full life. I just hope and pray I live to be his age one day. God bless you all for if you believe in God you will one day see your farther once again... we will pray for you and your mom tonight.
