“ I am so thankful, and blessed that God chose you to be my brother, and best friend. I always enjoyed our talks, because, you was always so easy, to talk to, with an ear for listening. You had a big, heart, and loved the Lord, caring for those in need, by throwing a few dollars, out to the homeless, and loaning money to friends, always there to help out. I just know that You have a special place in Heaven. I will forever miss your quiet, gentle, and caring spirit. RIP in peace my sweet and special brother! Your Sister, Virginia
