

Sara Angelyn "Angie" Rainwater Terry

October 16, 1942 - April 16, 2026

Sara Angelyn "Angie" Rainwater Terry was born on October 16, 1942, to Floyd Buren Rainwater and Sarah Ella Stone Rainwater and went to be with Jesus on April 16, 2026. She spent all of her childhood and early adult life in Atlanta, Georgia, then moved to Fairburn with her husband, Gene, where she remained throughout her life.

The most important thing in her life was her faith. She was an active member of Colonial Hills Baptist Church, originally in East Point and later in Lithia Springs. For about 20 years she served as secretary of Colonial Hills Christian School. Most of her closest friendships began at CHBC. Angie was a card-carrying member of the Geezer Club, which included her closest friends who met regularly along with their respective only children. She enjoyed playing the piano and taught many students over the years. She loved her family and friends with her whole heart.

Angie enjoyed 54 years of marriage to Gene, and he was the love of her life. They enjoyed traveling together, had a very different but equal love for music, and laughing. Their house was the home of the annual Ice Cream Party and that was the highlight of every year.

Her grandboys were the light of her life. She cared for them most days when they were small and as they got older, she lived for the moments she could spend with them. She enjoyed the last couple of years of her life with her grandson and "roommate", who cherished the time they spent together just as much as she did.

Angie is preceded in death by her parents, Floyd Buren & Sarah Ella Stone Rainwater, her husband, Merrell Eugene Terry, her sister Betty Jean Rainwater Clark and her niece, Eva Hightower. She is survived by her daughter, Jeannie Tuggle and her husband Ryan, her grandsons, Braedon and Gavin Lee and step-grandson Triston Tuggle, her brother, Lyndal and sister-in-law, Barbara Rainwater, her brother, Philip Rainwater, nephews, Scott (Patti) and Kevin (Cindy) Clark and nieces, Amy (Nick) Kendrick and Kristi (Mike) Early, many nieces and nephews-in-law, cousins and friends she considered family.

A funeral service will be held Tuesday, April 21, 2026 at 11 o'clock in the Chapel of Parrott Funeral Home with visitation Monday evening from 5:00 p.m. until 8:00 p.m. Pastor Mark Ernst officiating. Interment will follow at Holly Hill Memorial Park.

Angie's highest priority was to make sure that everyone she loved knew the Lord. She was an example of grace, forgiveness and faith. Her final days were spent telling the people she loved how much they were loved by her Jesus. So many people loved her and will feel her absence until we meet again in heaven.

“ Angie was a sweet, long-time dear friend. We shared an office job at Colonial Hills Christian School in the early 90s. She always joked I was the "other half of her brain." I told her in the ICU unit recently that I was in big trouble now, lol. Angie will be sorely missed, but I'm glad she's not suffering any longer and is with her Lord and Savior. Earth's loss, but heaven's gain. Praying for the family.

“ This is one of my fondest memories of my beloved sister. I would visit her often after Gene died. Once while she and I were at a fast food restaurant in Palmetto a young lady approached her and commented that she had an "aura" of happiness and joy about her. A total stranger. Angie responded by saying "I think it must be the Jesus in me"
Amen! Amen! Amen!

“ I have such fond memories of Angie and the lunch group that ate together in the finance office of CLBC every school day. There was much sharing and laughter. Angie was one that laughed easily and was fun to be around. She was a good school secretary and always had a smile on her helpful face.
