

Sara Baker

August 26, 1935 - February 1, 2025

Sara Baker, born on August 26, 1935, in Centreville, Alabama, passed away peacefully on February 1, 2025, in Union City, Georgia. She was 89 years old.

A devoted member of her community, Sara was particularly active in the Christian City community and faithfully attended Fairburn United Methodist Church, where she formed many lasting friendships and touched the lives of those around her with kindness and compassion. Beyond her community involvement, she was an ardent supporter of Alabama Football and could often be heard cheering "Roll Tide" with enthusiasm and pride.

Sara is preceded in death by her parents, Noah and Ollie Poe, as well as her siblings: Eula Mae Fuller (Fred), Midge Maze (Bill), James Wesley Poe, Roy Poe (Christine), Steve Poe (Sue), and Allen Poe (Peggy).

She is survived by her loving husband of 65 years, Charles E. "Jack" Baker Jr., her cherished children, Carol Cross, Jeff Baker (Will), and brothers Bill Poe (Frances) and Robert Poe. Her legacy continues through her beloved grandchildren, Nicole Cross and Caleb Cross. Sara also leaves behind her honorary daughters Ramona Morgan (Mike) and Rhonda Shultes (Jeff), her treasured Autumn Place neighbors, and many nieces and nephews who will forever hold her memory dear in their hearts.

Sara Baker's life was a testament to love, community, and family. She will be deeply missed by all who knew her and forever remembered for her warmth, generosity, and unwavering spirit.
