

Sara Moore

May 19, 1929 - April 11, 2022

Sara Barton Moore - lovingly known as Mom, Mammaw, Aunt Sa, or Miss Sara - was born in Rome, GA in 1930. She was one of three beautiful sisters, alongside Mary and Betty. In 1953, Sara married the love of her life, Clint Moore, before giving birth to her two children: Bart and Joy. Her home was always open to family and friends, and you could find Sara anywhere there was a volunteer opening.

Sara loved to travel, near or far. She was a cherished member of First Baptist Church of Cliftondale, an avid fan of the Atlanta Braves, a Real Estate Broker, a Meals on Wheels Delivery Driver, a nightly Jeopardy-watcher and most importantly, a God-fearing woman of faith, love and service. She is remembered by her intense generosity, quick smile and loving embrace.

Sara was preceded in death by her husband, Horace Clinton Moore and sister, Mary Barton Camp and is survived by her daughter, Joy Callahan and her husband, Whit of Marietta; son, Bart Moore and his wife, Glenda of Senoia; sister, Betty Mathis; grandchildren, Kara (Luci) Raymundo, Clare Callahan, Natalie (Colin) Ritsick, Darren Callahan (Katherine); Marion Ligon and her children, McKinlay Ligon and Holden Ligon, Ashton Callahan and great grandchild, Levi Gabriel Raymundo.

Funeral services will be held Saturday, May 7, 2022 at 2 o'clock at First Baptist Church of Cliftondale. In lieu of flowers those desiring may make donations to Palmetto Senior Center, 510 Turner Avenue, Palmetto, GA 30268. Those wishing may sign the online guest register at www.parrotfunera “ Prayers for the Holy Spirit to comfort Bart, Joy and their families during this time of grieving.

I will always remember Mrs. Moore as one of the most special and sweetest people involved in my "growing up" through my teen years at BHB church. She loved young people and had many over to their family home in East Point often. Bart & Joy were her children and my friends throughout those youthful years and still to this day. I often picked guitar with Mr. Moore at their home and Mrs. Moore loved our music . Spending summer vacation time with them and other church families in Fla. was always a blast and I will remember those days always. Mrs. Moore was like a second Mom to many of us teenagers back then and was a shining example of what a Christian wife, parent and human being should be an how one should conduct themselves in society. I loved her sweet smile and laughter that could penetrate any sadness you might be experiencing like sunshine breaking through a storm cloud. I will see you again someday "Big Sara" (as we in my family referred to her since my daughter's name is also Sarah) . Thank You for the memories & love!!

Love, Gary
