

Sarah Eve Nolan

July 21, 1939 - October 13, 2024

Sarah Eve Nolan, affectionately known as Eve, passed away peacefully on October 13, 2024, at the age of 85. Born on July 21, 1939, she lived a life filled with love, dedication, and an adventurous spirit.

Eve was the owner of Eve's Flower Shop in Fairburn, where she spent 47 years bringing beauty and joy to her community through her passion for floristry. Her business was a testament to her creativity and commitment, touching the lives of many who came through her doors.

Beyond her professional life, Eve was an avid traveler, with a particular fondness for the majestic landscapes of Colorado and Wyoming. The open skies and rugged mountains held a special place in her heart, and she cherished the memories made during her travels out west.

Eve is preceded in death by her beloved husband of 60 years, Luther Nolan, her parents, James Marvin Arnold and Sarah Bozeman Arnold, and her brothers, Carl Arnold and Ronald Arnold.

She leaves behind a devoted family who will forever hold her memory dear. Her daughters, Angela Nolan, Cindy Forrest, and Pam Sensing (Tony), carry forward her legacy of love and resilience. Her grandchildren, Carlee Brown (Joey), Matt Forrest (Sydney), and Nichole Huddleston, along with great-grandchildren Chase Huddleston and Liam Brown, brought immense joy to her life. Eve is also survived by her sister, Carol Bois, and her brothers, David Arnold (Marcia) and Randall Arnold (Debbie).

Family and friends will gather to honor Eve's life on Thursday, October 17, 2024, at 11 o'clock in the Chapel of Parrott Funeral Home, with Dr. George Dillard officiating the service. The family will receive friends one hour prior to the service to share memories and celebrate Eve's remarkable journey. Reception to follow at 255 South Shore Dr. Newnan, GA 30265.

“ I am so sorry Pam, Cindy and all of the family for your loss. Mrs Nolan was my go to for flowers back in high school. I have fond memories of her flower shop, it was always arranged so beautifully. She always has a smile on her face and always asked how my Mom was doing. My heart and prayers are with you and your family.

“ I just heard about Eve’s passing. So many of my childhood and even adult memories, growing up in Fairburn, involved Eve. Birthdays, Valentines Days, proms, weddings, including mine and yes funerals, including those of my dad, my mom, my grandparents and some friends. Eve was always the same sweet, caring southern lady for each event. Even remembering the sadder events, you cannot think of Eve Nolan and not smile. My sincere condolences and prayers for the Nolan family.

“ My wedding 9/12/71 was the first wedding Eve had done after her shop opened, she did a beautiful job and we quickly bonded. She sent me flowers to the hospital when each of my children were born and when my daughter married I never considered another florist. She was my go to anytime I needed an arrangement for whatever reason and Fairburn is losing a treasure in her passing as well as my loss of a friend. Eve will be sorely missed.

“ Sending love, hugs & prayers! Eve was a kind & loving business owner that connected with so many hearts in her years of design. I LOVED my time at Eve’s Flower shop, helping with deliveries, wrapping pots, making bows, etc many years ago, probably 1974/5. Angela and I had many fun times together! Thinking of everyone with love. Hugs!!
