“ Sara was a very warm, compassionate and loving woman who gave so much of herself without ever asking anything in return. As a newly ordained Franciscan Priest my first assignment in ministry was to Immaculate Conception Church in Moultrie, Georgia in 1954. The old Mission style church had no living quarters or other amenities for a priest until a few years later a generous building contractor modified the small Sacristy into living/bedroom/toilet and shower accommodations. However, before that time Sara and Cephas, her husband, often invited me to their home for breakfast, dinner or simply to take a shower or to clean up after a day at the church. As a rookie priest the Snider home became my place of refuge. Sara attended my first Masses 62 years ago; today, she attended my Mass as she entered into Eternal Glory. May she rest in peace.

With much love and a heart full of gratitude to a truly wonderful woman, I am

She loved you so much! I do, too. Thank you for your sweet, loving words. Father Kevin did a beautiful tribute to her, and captured her essence. Thank you for your mass for her, and loving her. I am very thankful we were able to bring her for a visit with you several years ago. ❤️

“ Sarah was a beautiful gift to our parish community. She lived in such a way that she and her loving husband produced a family of those willing to serve and work in the vineyard of the Lord. Her joy was contagious, and her love flowed over all of us. We are deeply grateful to her for the example of her life, and the blessings we have received from her extended family in prayer and friendship. May you sleep well beloved Sarah.

“ *I have such fawn memories of my Aunt Sarah. She always filled a room with her kindness. While treating everyone like you were special in her eyes, and the eyes of God. She made you feel that you were there for a greater purpose. I will always remember her loving smile. I wish all of her children and extended family comfort in this time. May God be with all of you. MR

Nana Sarah was one of the most gracious, kind, loving, and caring people I have ever known. When she talked to you it was as if there was no one else around even it was a room full of people. She was always warm and smiling even when she did not feel so well. Her hugs were always firm and tender. I will never forget her, and considering the fact that she died on the Blessed Mother's Feast Day we will never forget when she Left us.

"Eternal rest grant unto you Nana Sarah and may Perpetual Light Shine upon you." Your passing has left a big Hole in my Heart.

Lovingly Submitted
