“ We had 13 beautiful years together and you my friend gave me two of the most precious gifts that you could ever have given me. That is Austin and Skylar. We loved as hard as we fought and no one knows what we truly had together but me and you. You go rest high on that mountain and keep your arms wrapped around me and our two babies. Rest in peace Scott Dogo King. Until we meet again..

“ Just wanted to say through bad times and good I loved you. You gave me two precious grand babies and that heart of yours was pure gold. You are now with God watching down on us all. We will keep your memory alive for your babies and never let them forget what a great daddy you were and how much they are loved. Thanks for being our family for all the years you were here.
