“ My husband and I had thr pleasure of Knowing Coach Scott since 2007. Our children loved having him apart of their lives in school as he was always was so sweet to them. My husband had the pleasure of working with him as the basketball coach for the school and I had my own working experience with him as the after school teacher. I will miss him calling me "Preachers Wife" and hearing his hearty laugh. See you in heaven Coach. May the Comfort of the Holy Spirit give every family member(especially those sweet grandbabies who may not understand) Peace!

“ First of all, I would like to say I am very sorry this loss. I know Mr. Thompson is in heaven sitting with God looking down on us now. I have to say, I am like the many other kids that Mr. Thompson helped. I was going through a very hard time in my personal life in high school and he was the only one that would sit down with me and coach me on life. He could see the emotion on my face, and he would immediately sit down with me. He not only prayed with me, but he counseled me many times. He meant and still means a great deal to me. Mr. Thompson even traveled up to Young Harris College to visit me, and he brought his girlfriend with him. We even went on a double date together that day, ha. Anyways, I could go on for pages. I will be praying for the family as they go through this hard time.

“ Hard to wrap my head around it. Such a special guy. He lived his life for God in every way possible. I am praying for the family and students at CCS, and I know Coach T is sitting up there watching over us with God and a five gallon cup of sweet tea. I love you, Coach Scott, you brought me to Jesus and I can't thank you enough. I hope you were right when you said, "I can't imagine what Heaven is like, but I am sure it is PRETTY AMAZING.”

“ Scott will truly be missed. His love for teaching and his passion for sharing Christ had an impact to those he ministered to. I was always amazed at his ability to smile and give God thanks in spite of the physical pain he was in. He was a trophy of God's grace and a wonderful brother and friend in Christ. Roy and I were so thankful we had the opportunity to work with him at HCS. There was no one like Scott. Our prayers go out to his family,

“ Our hearts and prayers go out to the Thompson family during this time of sorrow. Coach was such a great man, and even though my children were not fortunate enough to have had him for a teacher, they knew and loved him. He was always there to greet them in the mornings when they got to school, and he was always kind and encouraging. He left a lasting impression on them, and he will be missed.

Praying for comfort and peace beyond understanding for all of you at this time.
