“ OH Martin Family, I am SO sorry for your loss. I imagine there is no pain more far-reaching and deeper than losing a child. Faith consists in believing when it is beyond the power of reason to believe. You have to believe that Ruben was here for a reason and your connection could never be broken. May God surround you and your sweet family with His unmeasurable love, peace and comfort! My heart and prayers go out to you at this most difficult time.

“ I am truly sorry to hear of your loss. You can be assured that God does understand the pain and hurt you may be going through. He soon promises that all suffering, pain, and even death will be things of the past. While we longingly await such promises, may the many loving memories comfort the family in the days ahead.-Revelation 21:4, Isaiah 25:8, Psalms 37:11.
