“ Carlton was a close classmate of me and my wife, Elaine Scott, at Russell High. My daughter, Kim, grew up with Carlton's daughter, Tracy, and they remain good friends to this day. Carlton and I were rival bankers in East Point in the 70's, and I have fond memories of those days. Elaine and I were out of town at the time of the funeral, and regret not having a chance to say goodbye to a good friend. We express our sincere, and deepest sympathy to Bonnie and the family, and will keep them in our prayers. Marlin and Elaine Morris

“ Although I haven't seen Carlton since graduation from Russell High School, he will, indeed be missed by many of his close friends. He, indeed has left a legacy of children and grandchildren to carry on in the life of their father and grandfather. He was always such a very upstanding young man and was well thought of by many of his classmates and friends through the years. Martha Ellen Hammond

“ Carlton was a good friend in high school and I have had no contact with him since those days. But, he was one of the ones who had a positive effect on me and one that I remember well for his character and authenticity. I have to believe that those qualities stayed with him throughout his entire life and have been passed on to his family. I pray for peace for the family as you move through the lonely days ahead.
