“ Jeff, you, your family, and Sharon's family are in our prayers. Please let us know if there is anything we can do, even if it's just being there to listen.

May God's hand hold you all and carry you through this valley in your lives.

I mean it, buddy, if you need to talk, I'm there to listen.

“ Sharon was not only my sister but my best friend for many years. We held lots of those friend/sister secrets that made us laugh often. I know that she has appreciated every one of her friends who have been a part of her life, whether in WV, DC or Atlanta. She held everyone dear no matter what the time frame in visiting was.

Sharon would want us to remember about her: firstly, the miracle of Jesus, the Glory of God and all the peace which comes with faith.

She would also want us to remember the funny times and even tell stories at her expense of how she made us laugh. If you don't have stories of your own about Sharon being silly please feel free to let me know. I have a few to go around which I would love to share with you!

I believe Sharon would like us to list her greatest accomplishment in life of being the Mother of Oliver Lago. He is truly amazing and her goal every day was to be the best Mother she could be.

We, her family are very proud to call Jeff our brother and are so thankful to him for his love and caring to Sharon.

“ Hi, Jeff. I do not know you but I knew Sharon so I know you must be a wonderful man. She was a very special, loving woman. My thoughts and prayers are with you, Oliver and family. I pray that the good memories are wonderful comfort to you. I do know some of what you are going through as my husband, Joe, went home almost 7 years ago. Please find time to be good to yourself... Sharon would have wanted that for you. God Bless, Debbie Burke
