

Sharon Waybright Myrick

December 10, 1948 - August 10, 2024

Sharon Waybright Myrick, born on December 10, 1948, in St. Petersburg, FL, passed away peacefully at home, on August 10, 2024, in Tyrone, Georgia surrounded by her family. She was 75 years old.

Sharon dedicated much of her professional life to serving others through her work in Human Resources at the Georgia Baptist Children's Home. Her caring nature and commitment to helping others were evident in all aspects of her life.

Sharon's passions extended beyond her career. She had a deep love for traveling to New Mexico, where she enjoyed collecting turquoise jewelry and pottery with her dear friend, Judy. She cherished shopping trips with her daughters and granddaughter, and relished moments spent at the beach. Sharon was also an avid gardener, finding joy in nurturing her plants and flowers. Above all, she treasured the time spent with her grandchildren and dogs, creating lasting memories with them. She had a particular fondness for turquoise jewelry, which she wore with great pride.

A woman of faith, Sharon never traveled without her Bible and loved the Lord deeply. Her spiritual devotion was a guiding light throughout her life.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Jack and Joan Waybright, and her beloved husband, Bruce Myrick. She leaves behind a loving family who will miss her dearly: her daughters, Jennifer Erickson (Dana) and Jessica Bishop (Chris Davis); her grandchildren, Zane Bishop (Brittany) and Zoey Bishop; her great-grandchildren, Skye Bishop and Easton Bishop; her sisters, Jacque and Tammy; and her brother, Jack.

A visitation to celebrate Sharon's life will be held on Saturday, August 17, 2024, from 2:00-4:00 p.m. at Parrott Funeral Home. Sharon's warmth, love, and unwavering faith will be remembered by all who knew her.
