“ I am at a total loss. I have known Shelly since grammar school, Parklane Elementary in East Point, GA, and we reconnected later in life at Westwood High School, Shelly was always the tall blonde with the big smile and beautiful hair. Such a sweet person and was a wonderful friend. I wish peace for her brother, Lane, and his family, but mostly for Shelly's children and grandchildren. Rest in peace sweet lady.

“ Leslie, Brad and family, I'm so sorry for your loss. Your mother was a dear lady and a great mother. I used to babysit you, and the two of you were always so sweet. She definitely did something right! I was thrilled for her when she made Florida her home and wish she had the chance to enjoy it longer. May God be with you.

“ Brad and Family,

Your mother was a special and gracious lady. We shared a lot of laughs through the years at Mabel White and her original cafe'. There was always a lot of love when she was around. My love and prayers are with you all at this time.
