“ I worked with Shirley and she is a rare and precious jewel. God made a very special lady when He created Shirley. She had such a gentle sweet spirit and such an innocence about her. When you think of Shirley you automatically smiled. She was a blessing to anyone who knew her. She loved her dog and shoes!!! Shirley you are loved and missed. I am sure you will have God laughing so much the angels are going to have to ask you to tone it down!! I can just hear you saying Well, I think God is okay if we have a little fun with Him too." Shirley is one of a kind.

“ To the family of "Sweet Baby Shirley". I had the pleasure of working with Shirley at Weinberg, Wheeler, Hudgins, Gunn & Dial. I will never forget her sweet humble spirit. She loved WWHGD and would call the switchboard from time to time after she retired just to check on everyone and to say hello. Going to miss you "Girly Girl Shirley"

“ I also had the pleasure of working with Shirley at Weinberg Wheeler. She always did everything with a smile. Five years ago I moved to California, and since then, Shirley and I would talk on the phone pretty regularly. I am so thankful we last spoke a few weeks ago and I had the chance to say one last time "I love you, Shirley." RIP sweet friend.

“ Shirley was the big sister I never had, always full of encouragement, advice and support. Words fall short to express how much she meant to me and how much I will miss her.

“ I had the pleasure of working with Shirley at Weinberg, Wheeler for several years before she retired. Shirley was "one of a kind" and will be missed dearly. She had such a great attitude and let "stuff" roll off her back. We should all take lessons from her. I know Shirley is in a much better place and is watching over those of us left behind. God bless her.

“ Shirley and I shared the same birthday. When we worked together at Weinberg Wheeler she always helped me out when I was in a bind. She was a witty and fun lady who was young at heart, always dressing fashionably and trendy.
