“ One of my favorite people in this world has gone home. Mrs. Shirley Kelly, a client at first but a friend always.

Mrs. Shirley was always more concerned about me when I'd call, asking after my girls, the new Grandbaby, my youngest daughter and whether she was happy in her job and how my oldest daughter's business was going. I'd have to interrupt her to ask how she was doing!

Mrs. Shirley always thought of others before herself. She will be in heaven looking after everyone there too!

I'm going to miss our trips to Piedmont in Atlanta and our fun lunches. I'm going to miss her sense of humor and her stories about when she "worked at the Capitol and had to drive in that crazy Atlanta traffic every day." She told the most wonderful stories about growing up in South Georgia.

Yes, I will miss her terribly, but I know I will see her again! And when I do, she will be "Talking with Jesus" as she and I used to talk about. She won't be in pain or weak anymore.

Father God, grant her a quick trip home to you and tell her "be seeing ya soon!" for me please Father. Give Her sons, daughterinlaw and grandchildren peace, knowing that she is well again. Give them comfort and healing during this time in the shadow of grief. All this in the Name of The Father, The Son and The Holy Spirit ~ Amen
