

Shirley Mae Parlier

June 12, 1956 - December 4, 2025

Shirley Mae Parlier, born on June 12, 1956, in Atlanta, Georgia, passed away peacefully on December 4, 2025, in Fayetteville, Georgia, at the age of 69. Shirley was a beloved wife, family member, and friend who will be deeply missed by all who knew her.

For 41 joyous years, she shared her life with her devoted husband, Claude Parlier. Their marriage was a testament to love and companionship, providing a strong and nurturing environment for their family. Shirley took immense pride in her family and found great joy in spending quality time with them, creating countless cherished memories.

Shirley is preceded in death by her parents, Lewis and Dora McBurnett, her son Bobby Joe Parlier, her sisters Cynthia Hope and Linda Nash, and her brother Dennis McBurnett.

She leaves behind her loving husband Claude, sister, BJ McBurnett, sister-in-law Carol McBurnett and numerous nieces and nephews who were touched by her kindness and warmth. Shirley's absence will leave a void in the hearts of those who loved her, but her spirit and the memories they shared will be treasured forever.

“ Shirley was always so sweet and kind and friendly. Even when she wasn't feeling well, she kept a smile on her face and worried about everyone else more than herself. We feel honored that we got to call her friend and she will be greatly missed. All our love goes out to Claude and her family. In Christ; Barry and Liz Dossett

We are so sorry for the loss of Shirley but we know she is free of pain and suffering. She is rejoicing with our Lord and Savior and her son that she loved so much. Our prayers are with Claude and the rest of the family.
