Shirley had such a sweet spirit and a servants heart, always ready to pitch in any time. I'm sad on one hand and rejoicing on the other, she finally made it home. Shirley loved to hear and talk about Heaven. I know she talked with Jesus. I envy ypu Shirley' but I'll see you there soon enough..

Shannon, this was absolutely amazing.. I cried all through it. Your mama was the sweetest, and she loved her kids, and grandkids.. she was an amazing teacher, and friend. I love the songs you chose, and she was gone to soon. I love yall, and ill keep yall in my prayers.

“ Oh my childhood memories are beginning to flood my soul with joy of the memories I had with Mrs. Rhea!

She is the reason I never thought of doing drugs! Her stories she would tell to us, my Kindergarten class (1995), are permanently in my mind!

My prayers are with her family, friends, and many many people that she inspired to be greater than themselves in community and home.

Mrs. Rhea you now know fully the greatness of our God!!

For clarity, she spoke fictional stories about life issues that children would be able to understand.

Shannon and family, you are all in my thoughts and prayers during this difficult time. I will always remember you all coming to the doctors office and how happy I was that we were able to reconnect. You and your family will always hold a very special place in my heart.
