“ Sibyle, I have so many good memories of you throughout my life. You had a wonderful sense of humor, a beautiful smile, and you loved to laugh. You were a hard worker, and were always ready to do for others. Your cooking was the BEST! I will miss you. Love you...your niece, Sheila Landrum Brown

“ I have fond memories of visiting Ralph and Sibyle with Mike. She always made me feel welcome and important. Always had cake to share. She was gracious and kind and loved a good laugh, too. Praying for peace and comfort for Rob and Larry. Love to all.

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with the Wright family at this time of loss. Sibyle was a very kind and sweet lady. We have very fond memories of her from The Hollonville Opry and eating peach ice cream at Carrol's Peach stand.

“ I have fond childhood memories of going to Sibyle & Ralph's house with my parents. They played cards (Rook), & David & I hung out with Larry & Robert. When visiting through the years, Sibyle always made me feel welcome. Her house was immaculate. She was a wonderful cook. And I don't ever remember seeing her with a single hair out of place! She was a pretty lady, with a cool laugh. May she Rest In Peace. 💕. Linda Cook Bullard
