“ Dear Family,
Ms. Sondra's library class was always my favorite in school. Our shared love of books and both of us being avid readers always made for interesting conversation on a variety of topics. It has been truly a blessing to me that we were able to reconnect during these last years of her life. She has been missed in my shop every Friday morning, as I know she will also be missed by so many others as she rest in peace until our Lord returns and we all are reunited forever! My thoughts and prayers are with you all.....

Love,

“ Miss Sondra was a wonderful, christian woman. From teaching Sunday School, to working with children in Awanas and Vacation Bible School, to preparing meals in the kitchen , she could always be found working at Ramah. Miss Sondra and Ramah will always go hand in hand in our memories. Larry and I are out of town, but the entire family will be in our prayers.
