“ To Carol & family, JoAnn & family, Harry & family. My heartfelt sympathy to you. I will surely miss my dear sister and friend. There was never a dull moment when I was in her company. Our consolation is that she began, continued and finished. She fought a good fight and is waiting to receive her crown.

“ I am so sorry for the loss of Mrs. Wilson. I have known her my entire life and always loved getting to see her when she would come to visit my grandparents (Lawrence and Lorenza Dickinson) and I would often stop by and say hello to her when I was at my cousin Pams house. I am thankful that I have been able to see her several times over that past year. She could always make me smile and laugh! I will miss her!

“ Surely thinking of you Carol, JoAnn. Harry and each of your families. You would feel the loss of your dear mother, grandmother, & friend. I could hardly grasp that she was 92. Sophie meant so much to me thru the years. Though your loss is keen, there is a wonderful sweet comfort that she has made it and is forever safe!
