“ I have so many great memories of Stacey (and Hank and the girls). When they lived across from us in Swan Lake, I saw them almost everyday for years. My mom loved Stacey and the family so much, she was over there all the time. Stacey was someone you met once and never forgot after that. She was beautiful and had a heart of gold. She genuinely cared about and for her friends and family. She had the greatest smile and an infectious laugh that made everyone around her feel light hearted and happy. It had been a long time since I saw her last, but I loved her just the same. This world is far less with Stacey no longer here. My condolences to her family.
