“ Mrs. Stephanie Pittman

My wife and I knew Stephanie for over forty years .She was like family to us .

I worked with her husband Sgt Wayne Pittman . He was loved and respected by his fellow firefighters. He answered his last call much to soon.

The Firefighters of College Park had a barbecue benefit for the widows and children of the firefighters who lost their lives on 911. Sgt pittman was honored at this benefit. Stephanie and her family was recognized and given accolades for his service to the citizens of College Park.

Stephanie was kind, humble and unselfish,she loved and cared for friends and family. Always sending cards to those having birthdays or cards of congratulations for achievements. She would often include a short personal note with the card.

I am proud of Stephanie's daughter Debbie and son Kevin for the love and care they gave to their mother. Their reward awaits them in Heaven.

Stephanie had The Love of God in her... She was a Child of God who was guided by the Light of Jesus,and I thank God for sharing Stephanie with us.

“So Be It.”
