“ Sherry, Rhonda, Keith and family. I have thought of a thousand words I could write about my precious friend of more than 50 years, Steve. But none could properly describe the beauty of this man's soul. He was kind, funny, God fearing and smart. He always uplifted me in my times of need with his kind words. I use his stories and funny things he sent to me in my writing every night. So many people have commented about how much they will miss seeing those in my stories, as they got to know Steve through them. I know that we will see him again one day in Heaven. Until then, I will hold him close to my heart in love and I will be in prayer for all of you. God Bless you all. Rest In Peace my precious friend. Joyce Carithers Mashburn.

“ Every word I start to type seems so inadequate to describe the man that my daddy was. He was kind , loving , generous and funny . He never ever failed to show his love or to tell you how very much he loved you . My heart is broken and I am sad beyond believe but I also have an inner peace , that I know comes from God . I have that peace because I most definitely know where my dad is at ... in his heavenly home with Ken , Hoyt, Ginny, Charles, Allen and His Mother and his Father both of them ❤️ . Because my dad was a lot of things but his greatest one was that of being a “Christian” and knowing we’re his eternal home was , and while that doesn’t take away my sadness or pain , it does give me peace knowing that I will see him once again. Love your little girl , Rhonda

“ Gran was the best grandfather I could have ever asked for. Anytime you ever needed anything he was there. His love and compassion was unlike any other. He found strength in the lord and loved my grandmother more than anything. A piece of me is gone, but I know I will see him again some day. It hurts more than anything right now, but I know Gran wouldn't want me to cry. He is still "the bestest in the whole world"
