“ One week later, why did you have to be so bold?

YOU ALREADY WERE!

I told you that, I shared that with you; I tried to help you understand that you already had all you needed and merely needed to sort it all out.

You stood up tall and strong and denied that.

Amen.

“ Dear Charlotte and Scott. We are unable to be with you tomorrow. We wanted you to know our love, thoughts and prayers will be with you tomorrow and for days and weeks to come. I can remember Steven as a child when he and Joy and Chris played together at Mama Lelia's. I know Chris has maintained a friendship with him even though we had lost contact with him. He has left us too early. One fond memory we have of him was at RD's funeral when he slipped in and sat with us. God bless you in this time of sorrow. Love you.

“ Steven (NEVER! Steve):

After meeting with many of your direct and extended family, I understand more than ever how precious you were to so many.

And, thanks to you, I understand why.

Rest assured and in Peace; our short time together was the "stuff of salvation" that we talked so endlessly about.

You have done the impossible:

Proven a negative might actually be a positive. Hard Work!

Work that could only have done by a unique-individual.

You did it with a grace, style and a uniqueness that will not be missed ...

because it will still be there, and will live on-and-on in both me and you and all that we've met for all of time.

Semper Fi! My Brother.

“ Steven was a much-loved and admired member of our extended family at Affairs to Remember. Those of us who worked with him remember his wonderful wit and his sweet personality. He was a kind, intelligent man, and we are so sad.

“ Steven was a wonderful friend and loved by so many. I think he would be happy that so many of his high school friends have come together to remember and honor him. I will never forget his quick wit and his passion for music, for I shared it too. Many times we chatted on FB about bands and concerts. I will surely miss Steven. He was one of a kind.

“ Aunt Charlotte and Scott:

I am so sorry we lost Steven so early, too early. I have so many fond memories of the three of us, Chris, Steven, and I playing and causing trouble at Mama Lelia's during the summer. He was such a sweet boy and I was always so in love with him. I will miss him.

Love you!

“ Steven, my sweet and caring friend! I am still adjusting to the idea of your passing. I will forever remember our long talks over the phone and that contagious laughter of yours. I promise I will be careful here in "Tornado Alley" because I know how much you worried about me and my family every time it rained bad. Rest in peace my friend. I miss you already!

“ I worked with Steven for several years at Coca-Cola. Our team mostly teleworked, so we didn't meet face to face often, but when we did go into the office for meetings we were always cracking up at his jokes. I'll always remember your sweet spirit and hysterical laugh, Steven. RIP.
