“ I'm so sorry for your loss. I too know the sting of death. The memories of good times will carry you thru these sad days. I hope that you can surround yourself with family and those who can build you up with the comfort you need. There is the best support found in God's word. Please read Isaiah 25:8. Death will soon be a thing of the past and there will be no more tears. Take care of yourself and let the scriptures fill you with hope and promise.

“ Mrs. Sullivan, Mike, Chuck, David, and families,

I was shocked and saddened to hear about Steve passing away unexpectedly a few days ago. We met one another when we started high school at Fulton in '64 and became friends almost instantly as he did with other classmates and students. Steve was an awesome guy, extremely witty, knew no strangers, and has now left us all much too soon.

May you find comfort knowing that he is now with our heavenly Father and the family members and friends that went before him. My thoughts and prayers are with you all now and in the days ahead.

*With deepest sympathy,
Steve Barton*

“ All the times we had playing cards, he was a good friend. I will never go long without thinking of Steve, and how I miss him.
