“ Susan was one of the dearest people I've ever known. Her love and trust for and in her Lord was an example to all who knew her Life won't be the same without Susan, but I know I will see her again, and am looking forward to that reunion.

“ Susan is now with our Lord in a glorious place of many mansions. Her faith and love of the Lord never wavered during her many years of serious health conditions. She always “crawled up into God’s hand” to get her through. Her smile and laughter will never be forgotten. She is singing in Heaven.

I can remember as a child looking at family pictures and mother always told me that she thought Susan was so pretty...i also agreed and I’ll never forget that. Susan shared Thanksgiving at my house for many years. She was with us this past Thanksgiving knowing that it would be our last time to enjoy being with mother. We all witnessed a miracle in mother that day. She seemed to be her old self once again.

We love you Susan. Thank you for your inspiration and love.

Jan
