

Susie B. (Sue) Hansard

January 7, 1921 - April 6, 2010

Mrs. Susie B. (Sue) Hansard of Fayetteville passed away Tuesday, April 6, 2010. Susie was born January 7, 1921 to Annie Mae and Otis Blissit in Luella, in Henry County, where she graduated from Henry County High School. Following her graduation from Draughon School of Commerce in 1939 she worked several years at the Morris Plan Bank in Atlanta. During this time she met the love of her life, a young, tall, Army officer named Fred Hansard. They wed in 1944 and traveled the world as Fred served his country. Their five children were born in Germany, Cambodia, Texas, and Kansas. Retirement brought Sue and her family back to Georgia where they have lived since 1966. She was a long time member of College Park First United Methodist Church. Sue enjoyed sewing, needlework, quilting, reading, gardening, and golf. Sue was a devote wife and loving mother who will be greatly missed. She was preceded in death by her husband, Col. Frederic E. Hansard; son, Frederic Emile Hansard II and is survived by her daughters, Angela Camp of LaGrange; Deborah Rivers and her husband John of Fayetteville; Julia Barmby and her husband Ric of Forest Park; son, Mike Hansard and his wife Elaine of Buford; brothers, James Blissit and his wife Maryann of Grovetown; Dr. Joseph Blissit and his wife Jan of McDonough; grandchildren, Andy Camp, Jac Camp, Michael Hansard, Deanna Hansard, Thomas Rivers, Clark Rivers, Jennifer Erickson, Ben Rivers, Laura Barmby, Beth Barmby; great grandchildren, Walker Camp, Rory Camp, Sara Erickson, Caroline Erickson, Katie Erickson and Sally Erickson. Funeral services will be held Friday, April 9, 2010 at 10 o'clock at College Park First United Methodist Church with remains placed in state at 9 o'clock. Rev. Beth Sanders officiating. Interment will follow at Forest Lawn Memorial Gardens.
