

Sybil Kay

June 2, 1937 - March 22, 2015

Mrs. Sybil Piper Kay, age 77, of Sharpsburg passed away Sunday, March 22, 2015. In her wake she left a legacy of being a loving, caring, and passionate Wife, Mother, Sister, Grandmother, and Aunt. As a member of McDonough Road Baptist Church, where she taught preschool, and served in the nursery department, she devoted her time and passion for God to impact the lives of all that surrounded her. She will forever be cherished by her late husband, Benny Kay and is survived by her daughters, Lynn Laywell and her husband Ed of Glasgow, KY, Cynthia Kay-Morris of Sharpsburg; sister, Jane Brown of Williamson; brother, Ron Piper and his wife Colleen of Fayetteville; grandson, Matt Kilgore and his wife Chrissy of Charlotte, NC; several nieces and nephews. A Memorial service will be held Tuesday, March 24, 2015 at 1 o'clock in the Chapel of Parrott Funeral Home with Rev. David Smith officiating. Those wishing may sign the online guestbook at www.parrottfuneralhome.com. In lieu of flowers the family requests donations be made to The National Kidney Foundation, www.kidney.org. The family will receive friends Monday evening from 5:00 until 8:00 p.m. at Parrott Funeral Home and Crematory, 770-964-4800.

“ Sybil was a wonderful person inside and out. Could not ask for a better person to have touched my life in so many ways. I have fond memories of days spent in her company and other family members. We have truly lost a wonderful lady and God has gained a mighty saint. My prayers are with the family during this time. I only wish I could have spent a few moments more with her in life to convey this in person. She will be missed by everyone.
