“Marlene, Carrie, & Maxine, We were saddened to learn of your mom's death. She and Vern were wonderful friends with my folks, Bill & Babe Stewart. Jon and I got to know them well through visits in Spooner and in Arizona. I feel I know you girls from visiting and corresponding with Esther. Esther was always pleasant and up beat and made my visits to the trailer park in AZ. a delightful experience. She and Vern took me to Vanity Fair for a fine shopping experience. Often Esther would cook something up for Mom to serve at her place. What a terrific friend/person. I know when Mom was failing Esther often covered for her or offered to keep her company. I have several birds she did for me and I treasure them and will continue to treasure them in her memory. May the joy of having such a wonderful mother soon replace the sadness of your loss. Buzzy

“When I read of Esther's passing it was with both sadness and fond memories of horses in the 50's and 60's then travels with my mother and father Bill and Babe Stewart, that I recall. Esther has a special place in our hearts as she was such a special friend when Mom became ill in Arizona. You are fortunate indeed to have had such a kind and caring mother. Kathy Houghton

“ Dear Marlene, Maxine, Carrie, and Family I wanted to express my deepest sympathy and concern for you and also share with you the wonderful hope for our dead loved ones. As you grieve Esther’s death, please reflect on the hope in question, which comes from Jehovah. By means of the Bible, He allows us to understand how He will eliminate death for good one day and bring our dead loved ones back to life. This is evident in Scriptures like (Isaiah 25: 8), (John 5: 28, 29), (1 Corinthians 15:26), (Revelation 21:3 and 4), which can comfort you in your sorrow. God’s promises are guaranteed because He cannot lie (Titus 1:2). Moreover John 11 verses 11-14, 39, 43, and 44 attests that Jesus, whom God appoints to bring the dead back to life, can do it since he demonstrated it when he resurrected Lazarus and several others when he was on earth. As you await Esther’s resurrection, please heed Jesus’s counsel in John 17 verse 3 and take steps to gain accurate knowledge of Jehovah and Jesus by carefully studying the Bible with God’s Witnesses. In John 5 verse 39, Jesus explains that such study is imperative for anyone, who wishes to have everlasting life one day here on earth, which will become a paradise where you can be re-united with Esther again in a world free of VIOLENCE, WAR, SICKNESS, OLD AGE, DEATH etc. as stated in (Psalms 37: 9-11 and 29), (Psalms 46: 8 and 9), (Isaiah 33:24), (Job: 33:25).

“ Esther approached life with lots of love and a healthy dose of humor. It was clear to me that one of her greatest accomplishments was being a mom... the very best. In fact she was mom to more than 3. I will hold the wonderful way she looked at me and others forever. I also hold her family in my prayers and thoughts. I loved Esther too.
