

Sylvia Flesher

February 25, 1943 - December 20, 2024

Sylvia Flesher, born on February 25, 1943, passed away peacefully on December 20, 2024, at the age of 81. She leaves behind a legacy of love, faith, and cherished memories that will be fondly remembered by all who knew her.

Sylvia was a devoted mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother whose life was centered around her family and her unwavering faith in God. She took immense pride in her children: Matthew James Flesher (Mandy), Buffy Christine Flesher, Daniel Alan Flesher (Jayla), and Melissa Sue Lukasik (Jason). Her love extended to her grandchildren, Zachery Flesher, Sadie Flesher Nash (Zach), Jaden Epperson, Jacob Flesher, Aaron Lukasik, and Madilyn Lukasik, as well as her great-grandchildren, Adelina Nash, Colt Nash, and Huston Nash.

Beyond her familial devotion, Sylvia had a passion for traveling across the United States, finding joy in exploring new places and meeting new people. Her fondness for children was evident not only in her family but also in her warm interactions with all young ones she encountered throughout her life.

Sylvia held a teaching degree from Chapman College, obtained in 1964, reflecting her dedication to education and nurturing the minds of future generations. Her dry sense of humor was a delightful trait that brought laughter and light moments to those around her, forming enduring connections with friends and family alike.

She is survived by her beloved sister, Jean Ann Naylor, and her niece, Tammee Wiseman, both of whom held special places in her heart.

A service to honor Sylvia's life will be held on Monday, December 30, 2024, at 1 o'clock at Westminster Memorial Gardens.
