“ Please accept my very sincere condolences and deepest sympathy, my heart really goes out to the entire family. It is with warm words of encouragement and of hope that I am writing you today. With our faith, hope and confidence in God's word the Bible we know that what he promises will come true. The Bible promises: Your dead one's will live again...They will rise up. Also: "The righteous themselves will possess the earth". (Isa 26:19; Ps 37:29). Yes, Almighty God has not only the power but also the desire to resurrect our dead loved one's. Jesus Christ himself said: "Do not marvel at this because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out".---

John 5:28, 29; Acts 24:15). Therefore when the enemy death strikes and our grief is great even though we have the hope of a resurrection it does not show a lack of faith or of weakness to cry. Yet, because we have confidence in the resurrection hope, as we draw close to God in prayer the Bible promises that he himself will sustain us (Ps 55:22). I really hope this brings a measure of comfort to all of you (Rev 21:3, 4). Please feel free to contact me with any questions you may have at (404)246-0624 or visit our website at www.jw.org

“ My condolences to the family during this difficult time. May you be comforted by your loving memories, family, and close friends. Know that our Heavenly Father Jehovah is near to us in our time of need. Draw close him in prayer. God's word the Bible tells us at Philippians 4:7 that God will grant us the mental peace we need by means of Jesus Christ. May this peace be with you now, and the days ahead.

“ To my Sweet Friend and Classmate from Roosevelt High School. I will miss the laughter, and beautiful smile that Terri always had when I was around her. I will always remember our last conversation on the phone and the last words we said to each other as we were hanging up the phone, the words that ring in my ears, "I Love you." My Deepest Sympathy and Prayers goes out to her two daughters, Mandy, and Amy and her grandchildren that she loved so much. To the rest of the Family that was left behind to mourn the loss of Terri. To Mandy and Amy, I know you will miss your Mom, and all the Family members will miss her for a long time to come. I Pray for Peace, Strength and Understanding, so you all will be able to carry on without her until the day we all meet Terri again in Heaven one sweet day!

"A HEART OF GOLD STOPPED BEATING, TWO EYES AT REST, GOD BROKE OUR HEARTS TO PROVE HE ONLY TAKES THE BEST." With Love, Kathy

“ There are no words adequate enough to express my heartfelt sympathy to all of you. Terri was such a special lady and she will be missed by so many people. Your family has been through so much and the pain will never go away. But God needed a beautiful lady and that He got. May you be comforted knowing that Terri is fully restored and celebrating with Jesus. God bless you all.

“ I have known Terri for many years, as I met her back in 1977 through her sister Andrea. She babysat my daughter, DeeDee, when I so needed someone, and will always appreciate that...and it was the beginning of a friendship. Also, very close friends with her sister Lorie Ann (and Don). I share the families' sorrow and pain during this difficult time, and pray God will give you the peace and comforter that only He can in the days ahead. We loved Terri and will miss her!
