“ Just saw this. Terr and I worked together at Central State Hospital (CSH), Milledgeville Georgia in the mid 80s.. He was a fine person and employee - it was a pleasure to know and work with EMT Terry Tolbert.

God bless him and his family.

“ We enjoyed knowing Terry since we became his neighbors in 2013, and were surprised and very disappointed to learn of his passing. A retired fire chief for the city of Atlanta during one of its most turbulent periods of the last century, Terry would regale us for hours with tales of his experiences and the characters with whom he had to deal, not a few of whom were nationally prominent. Always candid and unfailingly funny, Terry was a perfect compilation of every working Georgian, and in fact seemed to have undertaken almost every category if job at one time or another over the course of his long life. We wish his soul a speedy and peaceful passage to its Heavenly rest, and send our deepest condolences to his wife and family.

“ I'm so sorry to hear of Terry's passing. He's been a great neighbor to me for many years. He had a great sense of humor and loved just sitting and talking, always with a positive attitude. I'll miss him . Praying for peace and comfort for the family in this time of sadness.

“ I have to share that my Dad knew my love for animals, I was able to enjoy all of my many pets from the beginning with Sargent and Fotsie our incredible german Shepard's on Atlanta Ave. Many Bassett hounds we raised and chickens(I really hated having to pluck feathers) so we could eat a chicken. My joy and happiness were my horses Rebel my best friend, tinkerbelle, shiloh(daddy was the only one that could ride him) and a crazy black pony that was Little Terry's but he couldn't ride him. My love for animals continues to this day. I have a blue pit who loved to nip daddy in his side(just being playful) Daddy wanted to hit him but knew better. Thank you Daddy for all of the good memories I have of loving all of these pets. I will miss you forever! Your daughter, Lisa

“ I remember Terry sharing stories about how he used to work at the Fox Theatre and run home down the middle of Peachtree Street after work because he'd miss the last trolley. He was such a wonderful, joyous man. He will be missed. I'm so sorry for your loss.
