“ There are so many wonderful memories of Tommy&Fran that I could share here, but will save them for when I see y'all. It always amused Tommy that I was hardly ever at a loss for words. From the moment Fran & I met in a swimming class at GSU in 1978 we knew that we were kindred spirits. And from our first backpacking trip together I felt Tommy was like the older brother I had never had until Fran introduced us on that trip. I will always cherish all the fun times&adventures we had together throughout the years. It is mine&Jack's prayer that all the wonderful memories that all of Tommy&Fran's family&friends have will help ease this loss. Tommy&Fran will live on in our hearts forever as I'm sure that they will in yours also.

My family's thoughts and prayers are with your family. Your parents were loved and well thought off by the family of Bernice Lee Thomas. I'm her oldest daughter, Gloria.
