“ Jean and I are sorry to hear of Mr. Johnson's passing, we both remember him with great fondness. Praise the Lord for His promise of eternal life in heaven, I know what Ed is experiencing now is far superior than what he knew on earth. "To be absent from the body, is to be with the Father in heaven."

“ I will miss the talks Mr. Ed and I had about the Georgia Bulldogs. He knew so much about the history of Georgia, too. I really had a great time listening to him and sometimes getting to add my 2 cents worth to the conversation.

“ Dear Friends --

We are so sorry to hear of Ed's passing. I know it's been a rough time lately but I'm sure you are comforted knowing you will see him again and are finding consolation in your memories. In the meantime, I'm certain he and Daddy (JB) are nudging each other and saying "I saw Him in the hall....there He is" :)

Sadly, I am in Texas on business and won't be home til Friday late. Please know I'm thinking of you and you are all in our prayers.

Much love to each of you-

Paula and Jerry

“ Dearest Carolyn and kids,

Can't you just see the celebration going on in Heaven right now! So many friends from Oakland City, all in the presence of the Lord. Oh, but it's still bittersweet. We want to hold on, yet we know how much better they are...new bodies in Christ, walking and seeing, and full of Heaven's joy with eternal life. There's is such comfort in knowing we will all be together "on that beautiful shore" when Jesus calls us Home. When Dad and I would talk, he always told me, "When God says it's my time, then it's my time." It was Dad's time in January, it was Vernon's time a couple of months ago, and it was Ed's time yesterday. May you be blessed with many sweet memories of the days gone by in Oakland City. But more importantly, may you feel God's peace and reassurance that "It is well with Ed's soul." Love to all, Susan
