

Thomas Morris "Big T" Williams, Jr.

September 22, 1958 - July 26, 2024

Thomas Morris Williams, Jr., affectionately known to many as "Big T", passed away peacefully on July 26, 2024, in Fayetteville, Georgia. Born on September 22, 1958, in Atlanta, Georgia, he lived a life full of love, passion, and dedication for 65 remarkable years.

"Big T" was a man who embraced life with open arms and an open heart. His love for music was evident to all who knew him, and his truck was not just a vehicle but a cherished companion on countless adventures. A true sports enthusiast, he never missed an opportunity to cheer passionately for his favorite teams, especially the Atlanta Braves. Despite his many interests, he remained forever a mama's boy, holding his late mother, Linda Lou Day Williams, close to his heart.

His spirit was most alive when surrounded by family, the cornerstone of his world. He is survived by his devoted wife of 40 years, Elizabeth Williams, whose partnership with him was a testament to enduring love. His legacy continues through his beloved children: daughter Jennifer Imani and her husband Seun David, and his son Matthew Williams. His greatest joy was perhaps his grandchild, Ayomide Imani, whom he adored unconditionally. "Big T" is also survived by his loving sister Susan Horton, his brother Mike Williams and wife Lesley, and his cherished mother-in-law Hazel Ray. His extended family includes several nieces, nephews, brothers-in-law, and sisters-in-law, all of whom held him dear. Never one to leave out any family member, he shared a special bond with his grand-dogs, Max and Bruno.

He is preceded in death by his parents, Thomas Morris Williams, Sr., and Linda Lou Day Williams, who have surely welcomed him with open arms. A celebration of "Big T's" life will be held on Saturday, August 10, 2024, at 3 o'clock in the Chapel of Parrott Funeral Home. The family will receive family and friends one hour prior to the service, offering a time to share memories and honor a life well-lived.

In lieu of flowers, the family kindly requests that donations be made to the Lifeline Animal Project (www.lifelineanimal.org), reflecting "Big T's" love for animals and his compassionate spirit.
