“ Tim was so very special to me. He loved to joke with me and would come to my car when I was loading my wheelchair and ask if I needed any help. Then he would tell me if I did he would find me some. I will always remember that. We had a good time and he was such a kind man. He will always be special to me and will keep his family in my thoughts and prayers. I enjoy talking to Tommy and Gail at church.

“ I met "PawPaw" after his wife Mary went to be with Jesus (I clean his home. ) But cleaning for him allowed me to meet the most wonderful, caring, giving, loving, kind,compassionate, wise man I've ever known. I unofficially adopted him as my PawPaw because he was EVERYTHING a PawPaw and godly man should be!! He and his entire family are God fearing folks and you know they were that way because of him and Mary leading godly lives. No one will know how much I will miss MY PAWPAW. I love you PawPaw. I miss you terribly and will see you soon💙
