In Loving Memory of Thongphanh Sayaphat
October 1, 1967 – February 14, 2025

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Thongphanh, who left us on February 14th at the age of 57. He was a devoted father, loving husband, cherished friend, grandfather, and a pillar of strength to all who knew him.

Born in Luang Prabang, Laos, Thongphanh dedicated his life to his family, always leading with kindness, wisdom, and unwavering support. He was known for his kind-heart, fearlessness, giving and lively spirit. His legacy will live on in the hearts of those he touched.

He is survived by his wife Bounheuang Tayonekeo, his beloved children Annie, Henry, and Katy, his brother Thongphay Pongsanit, sister-in-law Thoum, and nephews Smithy, Kenny, and Donny. Though he is no longer with us, his love and guidance will remain in our lives forever.

Thongphanh will be deeply missed but never forgotten. May he rest in eternal peace.

“ We remember and celebrate the life of a truly remarkable man, our dear friend, who we lovingly called Dad. He was one of the best human beings to ever walk this earth, a man with a heart so big that he welcomed everyone into his home and made them feel like family.

His kindness knew no limits, and his skills were endless, always willing to lend a hand, fix what was broken, and offer guidance when it was needed most. But beyond that, he was the life of the party, bringing laughter, joy, and unforgettable moments to every gathering.

Above all, he was a devoted family man, and his grandkids were the absolute light of his life. The love he had for them and his entire family was undeniable and inspiring.

His absence leaves a void that can never truly be filled, but the memories, the laughter, and the love he shared will live on forever in our hearts. We miss you, “Dad”, more than words can ever express. Rest easy, knowing that your legacy of love and kindness will never be forgotten. With love, Marcella
